Summer Youth Employment Program Document Checklist:

Because the Summer Youth Employment Program is funded with federal dollars appropriated by New York State, documentation is required of all participants. Participants who cannot provide documentation may not be able to work. Documentation will include paperwork to document the following:

Social Security Numbers of all family members	Residence
Citizenship Status	Birthdate
Number in family	Family income (all earners)
Handicapped status (if applicable)	Working papers

We also need your report card.

To make sure you will be able to complete the application process, tear off this section of the pre-application, bring it home, and make sure the needed documents can be provided in June when pre-applications are screened for eligibility to work. DO NOT file documents with your pre-application.
